

NATI FRINJ BIENNALE

1, 2, 3 NOVEMBER 2019

PROGRAMME

WELCOME TO FRINJ 2019

This year Natimuk welcomes the 11th Frinj and I am so happy that it is still a grassroots celebration of this place, and the people who love it. Along with the return of festival favourites and old friends of the Frinj, we are stoked to have many new projects this year, including the extraordinary Styckx Theatre and World Premiere of Bee-Sharp Honeybee. A big thank you to the many creative souls who work so very hard to share their art with us. Frinj wouldn't happen without the huge effort of our many hard working volunteers too, so thank you. I would like to also thank the board and committee of ACT Natimuk - Sue Pavlovich, Dave Jones, Martin Bride, Mary French, Anna Ferguson, Tracey Skinner, Anthony Schellens and Made in Natimuk Producer Verity Higgins. They have been ever patient and supportive of this first-time director.

A big thank you to the super team of ACT General Manager/Frinj Production Manager Adam Demmert and Volunteer Coordinator Elaine Uebergang who together have been fantastic in wrangling people all over town to make Frinj happen.

I would also like to thank our Food Vendor team Kerry Hill, Jennifer Noonan and Mary French, and the thoroughly awesome Ying He, Lynne Quick, Marion Matthews, Jillian Pearce, Carolynne Hamdorf, Charee Smith, Shana Miatke, Peter French, Sally French, Alison Eggleton, Mark Uebergang, Rudy Panozzo and Sean Keown. And of course, the incredible Kate Finnerty, who helped build this festival to the amazing heights that it has now reached. Kate has been a huge part of the Frinj story and we salute her!

And finally, thank YOU for being here. I hope you have a great festival and I'll see you out there getting Frinj.

MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER FOR CREATIVE INDUSTRIES

The Nati Frinj transforms the Natimuk township into a creative celebration that brings the community together and attracts visitors from across Victoria.

This year's Frinj is expected to bring more than 3,500 artists and art lovers together for three days of art, performance, theatre, dance and so much more.

With over 80 contributing artists participating in 120 events, this year's festival is a true reflection of the artistry that can be found in regional Victoria, and is another reason why we are the creative state.

The Victorian Government is proud to support Nati Frinj 2019. Enjoy the festival!

TICKET SALES

Many performances and events will charge an entry fee, which is listed in this programme and online. These fees help to cover some of the festival and artists costs such as transport, lights and PA hire. We thank you for your support. Sometimes tickets will be sold at the door (cash only) and sometimes events/workshops will have to be booked online at natifrinj.com or in person at the Frinj HUB.

All online tickets are available at natifrinj.com from Mon 7 October or at the Frinj HUB from Fri 1 November.

FRINJ HUB

Open Fri 4 - 8pm / Sat & Sun 10am - 5pm

KEEPING UP THE GOOD VIBES

Natimuk is situated on the traditional lands of the Wotjobaluk, Jaadwa, Jadawadjali, Wergaia and Jupagulk peoples and is the home of about 500 or so locals. And for the Frinj weekend, you can become a local too. As a member of this community, please share the good vibes, respect your neighbours and help us take care of this special place. You can do this by camping only in designated camp areas, helping the festival establish our 'no single use plastic' waste initiative and recycle all that you can. If you have something to compost, ask your neighbour if you can add it to their bin. We're a friendly bunch, so any questions please ask away. Welcome and enjoy your time as a local to Natimuk this Frinj.

ACCESS

There are limited venues within the township so performances may take place in Band Rotunda's, old shed's, historic goal cells, someone's front room, disused garages – you get the idea. This means that access can be difficult. Not all the venues are fully accessible but we will try and support our audience where we can. If you would like more information please send us an email via our website - natifrinj.com

For all other general information, program updates, directions and accommodation information please visit natifrinj.com

PERFORMANCES AND EVENTS

WEREWOLVES

Nick Phillips

As night falls on the town of Millers Hollow, there's trouble afoot and werewolves are stalking the innocent villagers. As each morning breaks, the death toll rises and it's up to the villagers to try and find the werewolves lurking in plain sight among them.

In this immersive game of accusation, deceit and fun, an intimate room full of strangers are each given a card with their role and pitted against each other as they try to work together to weed out the werewolves and avoid lynching their own.

Sat 2 Nov, 8pm- 9pm / 10pm - 11pm

VENUE Court House

ABATTOIR NOIR

The Red Room Theatre

Dark humour, song, dance, and sketch expose the cruel practices inherent in the meat industry, in both the production of meat products, and practices of animal husbandry. VENUE Soldiers Memorial Hall

TICKETS $15 / $10

BLACK HOLE THEATRE PRESENTS

VAULT

Writer Chi Vu, Consultant/Collaborator Ron Marks, Performers/Collaborators Jack Sheppard, Abby Watkins, John Pyburn, Choreographer Jillian Pearce, Director Nancy Black

In a post-apocalyptic Natimuk, all knowledge has been lost and the land is ravaged by drought. Survivors share stories and fragments of history to explain their world, and shape a future. But they don't all agree! Using Y Space Theatre's soaring bamboo structure, three quarrelling climbers swing toward the sky, hoping to get rain either from the Creator (definition disputed) or with a drill. At Nati Frinj 2019, we are showing only an excerpt of what we are developing for 2021.

Fri 1 Nov, 9.45pm - 10.15pm

Sat 2 Nov, 8pm - 8.30pm

Sun 3 Nov, 9.45pm - 10.15pm

VENUE Styckx Theatre (Natimuk PS Oval)

TICKETS Free

These projects are funded by Creative Victoria, Black Hole Theatre, Barengi Gadjin Land Council and Regional Arts Victoria

HERE THEY COME!

Black Hole Theatre, Mary French, Ron Marks performed by volunteers from the Wimmera community

Millions of years ago, Natimuk was under water. Strange, yet oddly familiar creatures travelled the earth, swam the sea, and flew in the air. At the opening night parade, Black Hole Theatre will deliver a contemporary mix of these: jellyfish who light up and swirl through the crowds, flocks of birds, an emu, even a luminous yabby. All will be puppeteered by local volunteers trained during the weeks leading up to the festival. Watch out for them at other gatherings as well over the weekend!

See them at the Opening Parade and at various times throughout the festival

Also keep an eye (and ear) out for LISTEN UP!

Natimuk and the surrounding lands of the Jadawadjali people contain sites whose cultural significance stretches back thousands of years. These are associated with large and small places in our landscape. Using a map and your smartphone, look more closely. Listen. Over the next two years we will expand this program to include other sites, expanding the knowledge and interest in this remarkable area.
